It's strange...

Sometimes I can't remember my dreams,
Though I'm sure I saw them.

Where do these dreams go?

But I remember this one dream,
As clearly as if it were reflected in a mirror...

Story

Phantomile is a world, someplace far, far away. There is an old legend in Phantomile. It says that the energy from people's dreams is gathered in the mythical Moon Kingdom and used to give shape to the world. The legend says that this is the reason why we can't remember dreams we know we've had.

Klonoa, who lived in the Wind Village Breezegale, was awakened one day by a horrible nightmare vision of a flying ship crashing on Bell Hill, and a dark, ominous shadow closing in overhead. Mysteriously, Klonoa could remember this dream clearly even as time passed.

And then one day it happened. A flying ship really crashed on Bell Hill.

"It's just like my dream," Klonoa thought, as a moment of fear was overcome by his overwhelming curiosity.

"Let's go, Klonoa!" cried Huepow, the Ring Spirit. Huepow has been Klonoa's trusty friend since childhood. Their hearts pounding with excitement, Klonoa and Huepow ran outside to see what awaited them.

A World of Adventure

Once upon a time, four spirits held sway over Phantomile - the Wind Spirit, the Tree Spirit, the Water Spirit, and the Moon Spirit. The Moon Spirit gathered the energy from people's dreams, and used this energy to give shape to the world. The other Spirits maintained peace in the world by sharing the special powers of the wind, trees, and water that were entrusted to each of them.

And then one day, a Dark Spirit started a rebellion. He was jealous of the omnipotent power of the Moon Spirit to create anything in the universe. The Spirits combined their strength and battled the Dark Spirit. Although the Dark Spirit's awesome might overwhelmed the other spirits at first, he was eventually overcome and hunted down by the forces of light. The war raged on for 100 days and the Dark Spirit was imprisoned at the end of the war.

After the war, the Moon Spirit decided to disappear so that a war like this would never happen again in the future. Now, the Moon Spirit will not appear unless the Wind Spirit, the Tree Spirit, and the Water Spirit all will the Spirit to come forth. Thus, the power of dreams is forever hidden, far away in the land of dreams.

However, he can flap his ears one more time after being hurt or after separating from a Tepon (see the ENEMIES section further on in this manual). But be careful, he can't flap his ears while holding onto an enemy.

* These are the default controller settings. They can be changed in the OPTIONS Screen.

Klonoa can move left/right and face inward or outward while jumping. He can also attack in the middle of a jump.

Attacking

Pressing the  button or the  button will fire a Wind Bullet from Klonoa's Ring. When this is done next to an enemy, Klonoa can grab and inflate it. You can also attack enemies in the background or foreground. You can inflate some giant enemies, but you won't be able to grab them. But be careful, you can't inflate or grab Bosses.

Press the / button to fire the Wind Bullet.

If the Wind Bullet hits, you will grab the enemy.

Pressing the / button again throws the enemy.

The thrown enemy will either hit something in its way or explode after flying some distance.

Double Jump

When you are holding onto an enemy, it is possible to jump twice as high by jumping off of the enemy. Just press the  button or the  button while jumping or falling down to do a double jump.

This double jump allows Klonoa to jump higher than a normal jump.

It is also possible to kick the enemy downwards to attack enemies below.

You can grab another enemy in the middle of a double jump to jump even higher!

What You'll Find

You'll encounter many things in the course of your adventure. Here we will introduce just a few.

Fan Grass

This is a plant that blows a strong gust of wind upwards at regular intervals. You can ride this wind to jump higher and reach tall places you normally can't.

Rail Car

A rail car starts moving automatically when Klonoa gets on. You can move around on top of the rail car without worrying about falling off.

Gondolas

There are some that are always moving, some that move automatically once Klonoa gets on, and others that are operated by some power.

Locked Doors

Locked doors open when you bump into one while holding a key. One key is required for each door.

Leaves

Leaves are constantly buffeted by wind and are unstable. It's easy to fall off of them, so be careful.

Switches

When you hit a switch with a Wind Bullet or throw an enemy at it, its colour changes and something happens.

Jump Platform

You can jump really high if you press the jump button at just the right moment while stepping on one of these.

Rolling Logs

These turn slowly, so you can fall down if you stop. You can jump to adjust your position on the log.

Items

There are many Items to help Klonoa on his adventure.

Items Picked Up by Touching

Klonoa can pick these items up by touching them:

Green Dream Stone (Small)

You can earn 1 Klonoa when you gather 100 Stones.

Blue Dream Stone (Large)

Worth 5 small Dream Stones.

Key

There are some doors you can't open without a key.

Heart (Small)

Klonoa's health is restored by 1 level.

Heart (Large)

Klonoa's health is restored by 3 levels.

1 UP

Increases the number of Klonoa's you have by 1.

Items Picked Up by Attacking

Klonoa can pick these items up by hitting them with either a Wind Bullet or a captured enemy.

Phantomilian Prisoners

These spheres contain Phantomilions imprisoned in nightmares. A disruption in the balance of dreams in the world caused nightmares to begin dreaming their own dreams. This dreaming in turn trapped hapless Phantomilions. The number of people you rescue will affect how music is played back in the World Map that is shown when you clear a complete group of Visions.

Memory Clock

If Klonoa passes out, he can start at the last place where he picked up a clock. All items that Klonoa had at that point will be restored.

Ngapeko's Egg

When you hit this egg with a captured enemy, something pops out.

Legend of the Mirror Spirit

Once upon a time, there was a Mirror Spirit who loved to play tricks. The Spirit would take things and put them in front of the mirror. This confused people since it made those things look twice as large. Then, one day, the Mirror Spirit made a reflection of the Sun that was twice as large and drove away Night. People couldn't sleep or dream because there was no more Night. The spirit had gone too far this time with its tricks; the spirits were so angry that they imprisoned the Mirror Spirit.

Mirror Spirit

When you hit this sphere, the Mirror Spirit appears. While the Spirit is visible, Dream Stones will sparkle. Each Stone you pick up in this state is worth twice as much as a regular Stone.

Visions

What kind of adventures await Klonoa on his journey? We'll introduce just a few here.

VISION 1-1 The Beginnings of Gale - Breezegale, The Wind Village

Klonoa and Huepow begin their adventure by heading toward the fallen flying ship on Bell Hill. On the way, they meet a character named Balue the Mason, who tells them about the legend of Phantomile.

VISION 1-2 The Diva and the Dark Spirit - Gunston Mine

Go through the mine of shining stones and on to Bell Hill. Use the wind to jump over gaps in the path on the way. There are strange creatures up on the hill and they sure don't look friendly!

VISION 2-1 Deep in the Dying Forest - Forlock, the Tree Village

The two hurry to the Tree Village to warn Granny of the danger. But Joka reached her first! New types of monsters appear one after another, so be careful!

VISION 2-2 Beyond the Backwards Waterfall - The Kingdom of Jugpot

Klonoa and Huepow head toward the Water Kingdom because their path through the Dying Forest was blocked. After climbing up a huge waterfall, a voice calls from somewhere just as they reach Crustacean Castle.

VISION 3-1 Rebirth of the Forest - Forlock, the Tree Village

Klonoa and Huepow return to the Tree Village to see Granny. If you find a tied-up forest guard along the way, make sure to rescue him.

VISION 3-2 The Stopped Gear - The Tree Mansion of Machinery

Granny's house is full of machinery! You have to steer clear of all the obstacles before reaching the top of her mansion. The passageways are confusing, so don't get lost.

There's a lot more to Klonoa's adventure. A fantastic surprise awaits you at the end. Do your best!!

Characters

The inhabitants of Phantomile are simple, peace-loving people.

A happy creature living in Breezegale, the Wind Village. He's known for his long ears and blue hat. He's always running around the fields with his childhood friend, Huepow.

Huepow

A spirit who lives inside a ring that fell from the sky one day. Huepow normally stays inside the Ring and helps Klonoa use the power of the wind.

Lephise

The legendary diva who can sing the Song of Rebirth to give life back to the world again. She is being chased by Ghadius, the Dark Spirit, who wants to corrupt her powers.

Blue

Blue used to be Head Mason at the Gunston Mine. He believes in the legend of the Diva Lephise. He says it's his ultimate dream to go to the Moon Kingdom, where she lives. He's a hopeless romantic.

Granny

Granny is the elder of Forlock, the Tree Village. She lives in a mansion full of machinery nestled atop the branches of the sacred Great Tree that stands tall in the middle of her village. Like Grandpa, she is someone who knows some of the world's secrets.

King Seadoph

King Seadoph is king of Jugpot, the Water Kingdom; Phantomile's only remaining kingdom. He is guardian of the Eternal Spring and a keeper of some of Phantomile's secrets.

Grandpa

Grandpa is the elder of the Wind Village. He is Kionoa's guardian. A natural scholar, he has vast knowledge of Phantomile's history and legend.

Enemies

Ghadius, the Dark Spirit

Ghadius is a Dark Spirit who awoke from his long slumber. His imprisonment in sleep was a punishment that was decreed by the Spirits. Ghadius plots to turn Phantomile into a world of nightmares. He controls the World of Darkness and has the ability to warp space.

Joka

Joka is a loyal servant of Ghadius who just tries his best to please him. All he really wants is to be recognized by Ghadius. Still, something about him just doesn't seem right. He can harness the powers of darkness a little bit.

Rongo Lango

A beast with savage strength, he can create dangerous shockwaves and ripples on the ground. His weakness might be his behind.

Pamela

Pamela is a giant fish who guards the Crustacean Castle of Jugpot, the Water Kingdom. Pamela and King Seadoph are both spellbound and manipulated by Ghadius. But, they are really not evil at all. Bump the King into her to wake both of them up out of their curse.

Moo

These cute critters just wander around the paths haplessly.

Zippoe

Zippoe always tries to chase and ram into Klonoa whenever he sees him.

Spiker

Spiker is not affected at all by Klonoa's attacks, so the only thing you can do is to avoid him.

Tepon

He drifts about in the air and floats even higher when you inflate him.

Armored Moo

The Wind Bullet merely bounces off of this Moo. Throw other enemies at it to break its armor first.

Boin

Boin comes toward you by bouncing along, but be careful!

Shielded Moo

This Moo has a shield, so you can't attack from the front. Jump over it to get to its undefended backside.

Mewmew

Mewmew scatters bells with thorns sticking out of them. Jump over the balls to avoid them and then move in closer to attack quickly!

Giant Moo

This Moo has absorbed Dream Stones and transformed into a giant. If you ram an enemy into it, sometimes Dream Stones will pop out.

Boomie

After a certain amount of time passes, this dangerous enemy explodes! Be careful when it starts to glow! When a Boomie hits a wall, it falls straight down and blows up after a set time.

Dabby

Shoots out thorny balls from its rear end. Jump over its thorny bells and attack!

Glibz

Glibz is a double-gun toting enemy who just loves to shoot. Attack him in between rounds while he's grinning.

Shellie

Shellie is usually protected by its hard shell. Attack it when you can see its face.

Game Hints

Search for Items:

There are items that are invisible until Klonoa touches them. Make sure to search for these invisible goodies. Hard to see something that's invisible, you say? Don't fret, because you can see their shadows. Try jumping on a suspicious-looking shadow when you see one on the ground.

Use Your Enemies:

You cannot succeed in this game without being resourceful with your enemies. For instance, the floating Tepon is useful for reaching high places, and Boomie, who explodes after a certain time, is indispensable for solving puzzles that involve timing.

Also, try throwing enemies against places that have an X mark on them. This might open paths for you and help you earn valuable items.

Rescue Phantomillians:

Don't forget to rescue the poor Phantomillians that are trapped inside nightmares!!! There are 6 Phantomillians per each vision. If you are able to save everyone in each part, something will happen. You can find out what this secret is after you finish the game!!
